Credit Vouchers
Vouchers are a great way to get started on the FindMyPast website and just the thing if you want to dip into the records, now and then - and there are more than 700 million records to choose from! A 40 credit voucher costs just £5 (so, a credit is worth 12½p), which will be valid for 90 days from the date of your first usage. A page from the GRO Index books will cost just 1 credit (12½p), and an original page from the enumerator's books for the 1841-1901 censuses for England & Wales is 3 credits, the equivalent of just 37½p. Great value!

1911 Census-Ready
Perhaps the most significant event on the family history calendar recently has been the launch of the 1911 census for England & Wales. You can make full use of a credit voucher on the 1911census.co.uk website, where the transcription of a household will cost 10 credits (£1.25), and the householder's return itself will be 30 credits (£3.75).

Explorer Vouchers
If you've quite a bit of searching to do, an Explorer voucher may be what you need. Here, there is no 'credit limit' to worry about, as the Explorer gives you a FindMyPast subscription; you can buy vouchers for either full year, or 3 month (90 day) subscriptions. Note, though, that this excludes access to 1911census.co.uk, living relatives and decorative memorial scrolls. The vouchers are valid from the date of your first usage, so you can choose when your subscription begins; and the Guild of One-Name Studies is pleased to offer a reduced price of £85 for the annual Explorer voucher, which is normally £89.95 if you pay online.

Payment
You can pay by cheque written in UK currency, made out to 'Guild of One-Name Studies', or by debit or credit card (sorry - not American Express or Diner's). Please send the completed form, together with your payment to cover the amount due, to: The Guild Bookstall, 7 Amber Hill, Camberley, Surrey, GU15 1EB, U.K. Orders are normally fulfilled within 2 working days of receipt and are despatched by First Class mail (UK) or Airmail.
